CIRCUS INCUBATOR
A Europe’s America’s strategy for young artists

CALL FOR APPLICATIONS
PROGRAMMERS & PROFESSIONALS
Applications by January 29th 2016

Transmission path between young artists and professionals.
For programmers and professionals who are interested in meeting and accompanying young contemporary circus artists in their project's development.

PROJECT

Creation circus has developed throughout Europe, Latin America and in Quebec. Lots of young people are interested in the opportunities for personal achievement offered by artistic paths, values of contemporary circus. At the end of their training paths, aiming at artistic excellence in Europe, and at social integration in Latin America, young people are faced to a key period requiring the combination of the artistic project, the entrepreneurial approach and then capitalize their experience during their life path.

Confronted to a change in the economic model and action scale of the cultural sector, the young artists are less and less secure in their job. Moreover, the dialogue with the professionals is not easy because both parties lack training in that field. But the emergence of tomorrow’s talents is one of the sector challenges for which the project partners have expertise. They are part of local, national and international networks and are involved in accompanying young artists at the junction between formal and informal training.

These young artists’ internationalization can be a lever to change the exposed situation.

Operational objectives:
- Making young artists aware of the necessity to internationalize their career and capitalize this experience
- Raising the awareness of the professionals in charge of dissemination, to accompany young circus artists
- Promoting the use of online collaborative tools by the participants
- Promoting a hybridization of the American and European models of accompaniment and of funds raising

With this call for applications, Circus Incubator starts his first project incubator that will take place in Helsinki and Montréal in 2016. A research workshop only dedicated to young artists will be then developed through a crosscutting workshop focused on an artist/professional dialogue. Please note that this call for application is only concerning the crosscutting workshop that will set in Montréal, Canada.
